

Cotton Bamboo Long-sleeve T-shirt

<http://www.coolibar.com/index.html>

features our latest technology development in UV clothing called ZnO SUNTECT®. These versatile long sleeve sun block shirts blend the comfort of natural cotton with the sensibility of bamboo and the therapeutic benefits of zinc oxide, making them perfect for every activity under the sun! ZnO SUNTECT® embeds millions of tiny particles of zinc oxide -- the same ingredient that is used to block UVA & UVB in better sunscreens and to treat mild skin irritations and burns -- into every fiber. These ZnO particles cannot wash or wear out and will provide healthful benefits for the life of the garment. Great range of colors – buy several for year round use!
